

On the Bayou

Music by Christian Willisohn
Lyrics by Alexandra Mayer

Weather's fine and we're dancing in the street
We feel alright and let the music move our feet
Sun is shining, love is in the air
The kids are laughing, crazy people everywhere
On the bayou
She, I and you on the bayou.

Down in Louisiana we all have a lot of fun
We are living the Big Easy and there is no need to run
Grandma sits sewing in her rocking chair
Mama's cooking smell of Gumbo in the air
On the bayou
She, I and you on the bayou.

New Orleans is the city where all Jazz musicians play
The home of Jambalaya and of Crawfish Etouffée
Out here on the bayou we all play the Cydeco
We love to live, don't need no other place to go
On the bayou
She, I and you on the bayou.

Old Marie Laveau she used to dance out here at night
All the zombies hiding when the sun is shining bright
We dance and sing until we see the break of day
Come out here and join us, you will never go away
From the bayou
She, I and you from the bayou.
