

Samira´s Blues

Music by Christian Willisohn
Lyrics by Alexandra Mayer

Walk away now Samira
It is time to live
Walk away from your past now
To forget and forgive.

Samira, Samira
It is time to see
Your eyes have been so blind
And your thoughts never free.

It is time now Samira
To forget all your pain
They stole all your childhood
All your prayers in vain

Love yourself Samira
'cause love's there to last it is something to give away and time passing fast

Please trust us Samira
There are people who care
The sun shining for you will always be there
